

Noun Song

(Tune: Here We Go 'Round the Mulberry Bush)

A noun is a person, place or thing;
A noun is a person, place or thing;
A noun is a person, place or thing;
Like a prince or princess, queen or king. (person)
or the playground where I love to swing. (place)
or my kitty's favorite ball of string. (thing)

Adjective Song

(Tune: London Bridges Falling Down)

An adjective describes a noun, describes a noun, describes a noun.
An adjective describes a noun, like: furry, scary, big and brown. (a bear)
Repeat...like: shiny, yellow, bright and round. (the sun)

Verb Song

(Tune: The Farmer in the Dell)

A verb is a doing word.
A verb is a doing word.
Like run and jump and play and smile,
A verb is a doing word.

A verb is a doing word.
A verb is a doing word.
Like ... (quickly point to several children, one after another, to name a verb)
A verb is a doing word.

(Substitute other verbs, acting them out together.)